43. Marine Parade
Brighton.

My dear Sir.

I trouble you with a line to say that if you have [illegible] you had no more memorials of Keats which you mentioned, I should be glad to have them here

but that after ten days,
my address will be

Bawtry
Yorkshire.

This is to avoid their knowing where I am
London lodging.

I remain,
Yours very truly
Robt. L. Wilkes.
